Calling all makers, explorers and readers! This summer will be the best yet at the Cambridge Public Libraries.

We’re going to “Dig into Reading!” for the 2013 Summer Reading Program for children. Visit your neighborhood library and set your own reading goal this summer. When you’re not reading, you’ll find nonstop entertainment at the library from magic and science to yoyo-ing and hula hooping. We’ll have baby animals to pet, reptiles to admire, things to make, and movies to watch. And be sure to check out our free and discounted passes to museums and zoos available with a Minuteman library card.

For kids looking for great summer reading suggestions, everyone’s favorite library gerbils, Tallulah and Blanche, will host their third annual Tallulah and Blanche Book Award (TBBA) in the Main Library Children’s Room. Check out the contenders and vote for your favorite! TBBA selections are most appropriate for ages 8-12.

Upper school readers, are you going to be reading some amazing books this summer? Blog about it! Share your thoughts on the books you read on the library's “us, reading” blog all summer long for a chance to win a fabulous prize! usreading.blogspot.com
